GOLUMN.

A FEW CRACKS AT THE BOXERS.

John L. Sullivan says the turf is the door until he awakened.

only real thing and that the canvas now When he opened the de heed unaddled puzzles his feet and gives She then wound both arms around her first time last night and says that he was so puzzled by it that he hardly .

knew the name of the fighter he was

A fighter's life is not entirely bosed of dealing up the numerous wind a hurried departure for their home. troubles the same as many business Coy talked of to-night's fight to the remen. Jim Corbett is one of these. He porter. has been floored with well-wishing telework and every message is followed by well I feel.

Corbett's usual good nature leaves him er than ever before. after he has read a half a dozen of these messages and then begins a busi- woman when he meets me to-night. I'll which makes stationery store men surprise him sure." rich. If he wins to-night he says he's ng to buy a great big waste basket be-used for ticket requests.

the ring as well as in it. How near he too, and there is every indication of the choking to death while he elping Jim Jeffries to train for his fisht at dinner and somebody had sneaked a porter. lece of rope into it. When it came time o serve it Dunk was told of how super-ing the heavy fellow. "Just try it."

"Dunk" began to chew on the rope and was about to swallow it whole was rescued in time by Jeff.

bit he said it was the last time any-body would get such a chance. But one Tom Couhig, at Buffalo, gets it to-night. The champion is getting weight this time said so.

Erne is a pretty shrewd boy and he probably has figured that his opponent's chances of landing on his face are Talking about men who "quit the ring forever." there is Billy Plinmer. England's erstwhile elever champion bantam, who has been sent down to defea sore than once. Billy is going to figh gain after declaring himself out for the menth time. Wouldn't these retire Geet of giving the fighters visions of

Is it any wonder that good bouts were Pitzsimmons to-day, and if Lanky Bob reconsiders his retirement and accepts
The will only change his mind and any time Pitzsimmons is ready.
The will only change his mind and any time Pitzsimmons is ready.
The will only change his mind and any time Pitzsimmons is ready.
The will only change his mind and any time Pitzsimmons is ready.
The will only change his mind and any time Pitzsimmons is ready.
The will only change his mind and any time Pitzsimmons is ready.
The will not love any time in all the pitzsimmons is ready.
The will not love any time in all the pitzsimmons is ready.
The will not be a pitzsimmon and any time Pitzsimmons is ready.
The will not be a pitzsimmon and any time Pitzsimmon and any t a regity in some of those Brooklyn clubs? Andy Waish is billed to do a Horton law farewell in the southern part of the borough to-morrow night, yet he has told every one about the chowder he attended yesterday. Andy thinks two days' training will fit him in excellent shape, no matter what continuous formula in excellent shape, no matter what continuous formula is proposition as was ever offered to Fitz simmons, for, besides being willing to me to fight him in that short space of time, I also give him the chance to regain the championship I won from him.

The with Philadelphia is proposition as was ever offered to Fitz simmons, for, besides being willing to fight him in that short space of time, I also give him the chance to regain the championship I won from him.

The with Philadelphia is proposition as was ever offered to Fitz simmons, for, besides being willing to fight him in that short space of time, I also give him the chance to regain the championship I won from him.

Fitzsimmons is trying to make the public helieve I am afraid to fight him in that short space of time, I also give him the chance to regain the championship I won from him.

Fitzsimmons is trying to make the public helieve I am afraid to fight him. dition he may have acquired yesterday

Well, for Andy's part, that's all right

MISS HOYT RETRIEVES.

at Shinnecock by One Stroke from Mrs. Fox. GOLF STATION, SOUTHAMPTON.

N. Y., Aug 30 .- Despite the heavy clouds which hung over the links this morning. the start was made in the second round of the women's championship about 10 o'clock, with Miss Genevieve Hecker Weeburn, driving off the first tee in her Fight Promises to Be the Most Scientific Fistic Argument of the Century.

Kid McCoy, who is to fight Jim Corbett at Madison Square Garden to-night. training quarters at Saratoga, via Al-He came down on the Dean Richmond, which docked at her pier foot of Canal street, at 6.20. Mrs. Mc-Coy and an Evening World reporter the puglist. The "Kid" occupted stateroom 18, and as soon as the steamer was made fast N it be that the inferiority of the Mrs. McCoy hurried aboard to greet her old fighters is due to the ring husband. He was still asleep, but she which is now used in the game? rapped impatiently on the stateroom.

When he opened the door Mrs. Mcused on the ring floors for the express Coy rushed forward, crying. "On, my purpose of keeping a downed fighter's darling." How do you feel?"

him the impression that he doesn't know husband's neck and covered his face John tried the padded floor for the feel?" she stammered. "Never better, dear," replied the Kid:

"and I'll surely win to-night." Mrs. McCoy then proceeded to take control of the stateroom. She gathered me her husband's belongings together for of blows for coin. He has his own While his wife was thus engaged. Mc-

"I am in the finest condition of my grams from unknowns for the past life, and I can's begin to tell you how My stay at the Springs polite little note asking for a ticket greatly benefited me. I now weigh 170 pounds stripped, and think I am strong

"Corbett won't be boxing with a

KID-LOOKS WELL.

The Kid certainly looks all he said about himself. He is bronzed from the Poor, abused old Ed Dunkhorst has sun and appears bigger than ever bend a great deal of sport outside fore in street clothes. His eye is clear, properly trained athlete about him.

When Mrs. McCoy had finished packwith Corbett only the champion himself ing her husband's vallee she became inows. One day asparagus was served enthusiastic in her talk with the re-

Why of course he will; he has to; why or a certain portion of the vegetable how can he lose? Do you think he'll lose? He won't, I know he won't. "Why, here it is now," said Jeff, help- Didn't he tell me he would surely win He knows, doesn't he?

MRS. M'COY ON CORBETT.

"Why Mr. Corbett cannot beat my husband. He's not trained so well, and den he gives him great credit for his fight 10 to 7 favorite. One of the biggest do it. I didn't either, because Norman Grant's money on McCoy against $1,000

"Why, only yesterday I was reading Mr. Corbett's record. Who has he defeated? only poor old John L. Sullivan

POINTERS ON . TO-NIGHT'S FIGHT.

Contestants - Jim Corbett and "Kid" Metoy.

Length of Fight - 25

Weights-Corbett, 185; Me-

Place-Madison Square Gar-

Purse-60 per cent. of the gross receipts. Winner's share - 70 per Referee-Charley White Seconds - For Corbett. George Considine, "Spider" Kelly, Dat Hawkins and Fred Stone; for McCoy, George Grant, Jack O'Brien,

Timekeepers-For Corbett. Al Smith: for McCoy, Jimmy

Selby.

Harry Harris and Homer

Betting-10 to 7 on Corbett.

that class. My husband has fought better men, hasn't he? Oh, he cannot lose

"Would you like to see the fight?" the reporter asked

'No. indeed, I wouldn't. I'm satisfied to stay at home and wait until Norman omes back to me."

While his wife was talking the Kid stood by looking at her admiringly. She saw he was ready and then both hastened to the hansom and were driven home. The Kid sald he would remain indoors until after lunch, when he will take a short walk. He would then return and go to sleep until he was called go to the Garden.

Corbett was up at his usual hour and went through his light, simple exer- some at a hotel until he starts for the Gar- $1,400, but refused it.

of a Wall street man's cash.

CORBETH HAS BACKERS.

Jim Jeffries, champion puglist of the John L.'s benefit last night I cannot afraid to defend my title by agreeing t

The searcity of McCoy money is Corbett money is plentiful and in tury. It is a fight which is looked for- than a cise, after which he ate breakfast, are holding out for 10 to 6. Tom O'Rourk the sciences of the art, and if a bruis- pick the winner of this fight is proving According to prearranged plans he will wanted to bet $2,000 on Corbett against ing slugging fight follows there are as hard as the naming of the winner in start for the city at noon and put up $1,600, but couldn't. He was offered sure to be thousands of disappointed a fifteen-horse race. In no fight have ex-fight, which is expected to be the great-est scientific fistic argument of the cen-to be productive of more speculation over way the battle goes it is sure many

So Frank Erne is fighting, or rather is going to fight again, eh? When Terry McGovern flattened his countenance a McGovern with Jeffries. He didn't think he could bets made thus early is $900 of George the Kid may turn up a favorite at the event under the Horton law, but be- Quite a few bets have been made on

CORBETT AND HIS SECONDS AS THEY WILL APPEAR IN HIS CORNER TO-NIGHT. McCoy Arrives in Town Looking in Excellent Shape.

quired excellent form. Maybe it is not land his avoirdupois is said to be all so fine as it was when he fought Jef-good hard tissue. But as heavy as he fries, but nevertheless he is fit to travel may be there is a certainty that Corfast twenty-five rounds. He has bett will show fully ten pounds to adsparred and boxed with all styles of vantage. sparred and bacco with the feather-weights. There is no questioning the "Kid's" up to the heavy middle-weight. There is no questioning the "Kid's" punch. He has it, and with either hand favor is his advantage in weight. His blow which many are backing to peneheight and reach are better than those trate Jim's guard and send him to grass ling during the bout it is hard to see too, but in his training he has instructed

That the men are in fine shape there champion before he is through with him. can be little doubt. The other necessity, His cleverness must be discounted no confidence, both men have in abundance. more than Corbett's. It may be entirely Whather the punch will outrule clever-different to that of his opponent's; it Was there the punch will obtain the mass is a matter which only to-night will tell. Corbett, since he began his work at Bath Beach four weeks ago, has acquired excellent form. Maybe it is not and his avoirdupois is said to be all

Then another important thing in his he can deal a finishing blow. It's that McCoy, too, and with careful hand- the loser. The ex-champion knows it, M'COY IS TRICKY.

But McCoy has some few tricks which

HOW EXPERTS THINK BIG FIGHT WILL GO.

There is a great diversity of opinion among the experts as to the result of to-night's fight. Here are some of them:

"HONEST JOHN" KELLY-Cor. WILLIAM A. BRADY-McCoy as weight, strength and height. bett is not the same Corbett.

cieverness. His experience is as clever and he can hit will also serve him well, and I harder.

and when in that condition I he ought to win.

down with his constant jabs. can, and I think he'll win.

GUS RUHLIN-Corbett is elev- FRED GRANT-Me'oy is a erer than McCoy and will win "pipe." He will win easily. ensily. His judgment is better LOU HOUSMAN-McCoy ought to than the "Kid's," and I can't win with his panch, but he will see where he has a chance of know he's had a fight before he

TOM O'ROURKE-I think Cor- | DICK KANE-Corbett's cleverbett's strength ought to carry ness ought to win for him. him to victory, but at that the and the "Kid" will never "Kid" is a dangerous proposi- get a chance to use his stiff bett ought to beat McCoy, for has the punch, and I think that he has every advantage, such will win the fight for him. Cor-JOHN CONSIDINE-Corbett will JOHN L. SULLIVAN-McCoy to win sure. He's in fine shape my choice because he can wal-and will easily avoid all of Me- lop them in faster than the exchampton. BILLY MADDEN-Corbett will JIMMY CARROLL-1 pick Mewin because he is superior in Coy to bent Corbett because he think he'll win by a knockout. JIMMY WAKELY-The "Kid" Al. SMITH-Corbett, I think, is is in better shape than he ever nearly as good as he ever was, was before, and for that reason don't think McCoy has a chance DAN O'ROURKE-Give me with him. He'll wear the "Kid" man who can punch. McCoy gets through.

RACE TRACK, HAWTHORNE, AND

First Race-Four and one-half furongs.-Won by The Elt. 2 to 1 and 4 to

N. Fridolin, 2 to 1 for place, second;

Katherine Ennis third. Time-0.55 3-4. Second Race-Three-quarters of a mile.

second, and Boney Boy third. Time-

o-day resulted as follows:

HAWTHORNE WINNERS.

LABOR DAY BASEBALL.

Afternoon, with a Double Bill Tuesday, Too.

Two double bills will be offered at the Polo Grounds on Monday and Tuesday. In the afternoon, instead of one in the morning. One admission will be charged to both games. Anybody who has sweltered in a Labor Day morning sun will appreciate this arrangement, said. sweltered in a Labor Day morning sun will appreciate this arrangement, aside existence that is worn with absolute make and process.

from the matter of price.

On Tuesday afternoon two games for one "fare" will also be given, Cincinnati being the Giants' opponents. This nas been done in order to secure an open date on Wednesday to play off a postponed game with the Reds.

the hardest exercise or severest strain and will effect a permanent and speedy cure. Examination for the control of the cont

New Publications

New Publications.

Just Before Corbett-McCoy Fight Buy CORBETT and M'GOV-ERN'S Great Training Book, HOW TO BUILD MUSCLE By JAMES J. CORBETT. HOW TO BOX TO WIN. By TERRY M'GOVERN. SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED. JUST OUT ON ALL NEWSSTANDS. ON RECEIPT OF

Rohde & Haskins, 9 Cortlandt St., New York.

OLD DR. GRINDLE.

OLD DR. GREY.

Every American citizen with the welfare of his country at heart should inform himself upon the political situation. World Almanac, 35c. All dealers.

Handleap, for three-year-olds and up, one mile.

Starlers, whits, Jocks St.HH.Ph.

Remars, 108, Bullman 1 15 11 6 2
Gen Mart Gary 98, J.Slack 6 4 29 12 5
Gen Mart Gary 98, J.Slack 6 4 29 12 5
John Verkes, 108, Heary 15 4 12 4
John Cont. 125, Mahrer 1 35 5 7-2 7-5 J
Joid Pox.102 Wedderstrand 7 8 6 12 7
Plink Cont. 115, Turner 7 8 6 12 7
John Cont. 115, Turner 7 8 6 12 7
John Cont. 115, Turner 7 8 7 13 5-2 7
John Cont. 115, Turner 7 9 7 13 5-2 7
John Cont. 115, Turner 7 9 1 15 6
Karrigood Wen easily. Time-1.35

Plink Cont. was the chotce, but it is 8
Plink Cont. was the chotce, but it is 8

There was a delay at the post, but hey finally went away in good order, because the favories to the finally went away in good order, because the final but was out- in hy Glernettle and Rochamaton out- in the favories of the final control of struck the bend Sand Piper went to the front and drew away with ease, winning by two lengths from Basuto, who came fast at the end and beat Taicosa a half length for the place.

sgcond race

sgcond race

and David Garrick on even terms, a length away. They ran this way to the far turn, where Watercure was beaten and length for the place.

sgcond race SHEEPSHEAD ENTRIES.

RACE TRACK, SHEEPSHEAD BAY, Daly, 23, Barrell, d. D. Weyning, p. Umpire—Mr. Hurst. First Race—For filles, two-year-olds) last free furious of new Puturity course.

Spiash 100 Fieche D'Or 109 Mary McCor 114 Merningside 109 Salamis 109 Servilla 109 Salamis 109 Gentrude Elliont 109 Salamis 100 Gueswork 100 Likeness 100 Gueswork 100 Gues

Fifth Race-Seller, for three-year-olds and o

FITZ IN THIRTY DAYS.

than they did in chowders and the like, maybe they wouldn't be breaking their neeks now trying to earn a few dollars before their game dies.

THE KNOCKER.

The dans beat Fizzimmons, just as I are don't want the public to think for a moment that I am afraid to fight because he is the next best fighter former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled in the public to think for me. The Beancaters promised to work former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled in the public to think for me. The Beancaters promised to work former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled in the public to think for me. The Beancaters promised to work former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled in the public to fight the next best fighter former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled in the public to fight the next best fighter former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled in the public to fight the next best fighter former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled in the public to fight the next best fighter former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the cause was that Johnnie Durn, the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors.

The Cause was that Johnnie Durn, the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for the visitors. Durn has all the former Brooklyn twirler, was scheduled to pilch for Philadelph a.

McFarland walked. Wolverton put up an easy fly for Cross. Dolan singled to left. Dunn fouled to Cross. Daly took Thomas's grounder to second in time to force Dolan. No runs.

FLATBUSH STAKE STARTERS Ballyhoo Bey at Top Weight in the Big Race on Saturday

at the Bay.

Hally hon Sey 170 Irritable 113
Eithory 115 Emile 1vc
King Lief 115 Alard Sheek 115
Tammy Atkins 115 Lafy Schorr 90
Junmanéo 115 Prince Pepper 115
Ulympian 106 Longsboremen 106
Either 147 115
Either 14

BOSTON HOT

can arrange to fight within a month, that time being necessary for actual training.

"I will go to Carson City to fight public believe I am afraid to fight first because I would not agree to meet him on Aug. II; but I hope the public him on Aug. II; but I hope the public him on Aug. II; but I hope the public him on Aug. II; but I hope the public him on Aug. II; but I hope the public him thirty days, make him a him on Aug. II; but I hope the public him on Aug. II; but I hope the publi but for the poor imposed-on public it not. If fighters would have taken a bit more interest in their little contests that I can beat Fitzsimmons, just as I "I don't want the public to think for "I give Fitzsimmons the first opportuation."

Suit and consent to the winner taking am not affaild to box Fitzsimmons or interest in their little contests that I can beat Fitzsimmons, just as I "I don't want the public to think for "I give Fitzsimmons the first opportuation."

The Beansators promised to much larger than It has been for the little contests that I can beat Fitzsimmons, just as I "I don't want the public to think for "I give Fitzsimmons the first opportuation."

The Beansators promised to work the little contests that I can beat Fitzsimmons are not affaild to box Fitzsimmons or interest in their little contests.

The Glants, however, are playing a very fast game in this city and have made Frank Selee's men nustle for all "Win" Mercer, the most graceful outlier in the League, was promised in the hox for New York and Willis for the local team.

The attendance was 1.200.

New York.
Van Haitren, cf.
Davis, 82.
Selbach, if.
Hickman, 3b.
Smith, 7f.
Doyle, 1b.
Gleason, 2b.
Orady, c. Hamilton, cf.

Davis doubled to right. Selbach singled and Davis scored. Hickman hit to Lowe and a double play was ex-ecuted by Lowe. Long and Tenney. Smith out on a grounder to Long. One Willis filed to Van. Hamilton fouled to Grady. Davis fumbled Long's grounder. Freeman gave Van a high fly. No runs. Fourth laning.